Fr. Scott Bullock "Jesus in Western Art"

Fr. Scott's presentation will take a close look at a number of classic depictions of Jesus Christ in Western Art, with the aim of providing some strategies for a deeper appreciation of images of Jesus and the use of images in prayer.

Fr. Scott Bullock was born in Michigan and attended college there, where he completed a BS in Industrial Engineering degree and worked for General Motors. Coming to Iowa to study at Iowa State University, he "saw the Light" and entered seminary. He was ordained as a priest on June 22, 1991. He currently serves as Pastor of the Church of the Nativity in Dubuque, Rector of St. Pius X Seminary at Loras College, and Judicial Vicar of the Archdiocese of Dubuque. His parents and much of his family still live in Michigan.
