About the Speakers...

Sara Splichal received her MA in Theology and Christian Ministry from Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio. She is currently the Director of the Office of Family Life for the Catholic Diocese of Wichita, Kansas.

Karen Glover, Ph.D., a wife and mother, is also an assistant professor of Chemistry at Clarke College and serves as coordinator of RCIA at St. Anthony Church in Dubuque.

Patty Schneier and her husband, Larry, live with their three children in St. Louis, Missouri. She has always been an active Catholic, involved with music ministry and many parish activities.

Fr. Phil Kruse was born in Dubuque, raised in rural Dyersville, a graduate of Beckman High School and Loras College. He was ordained 23 years ago and served 19 of those in the Diocese of Des Moines as a teacher, school administrator, pastor, and Director of Vocations. Father became pastor of St. Columbkille in July of 2000.

Kim Smith is a member of St. Jude parish in Cedar Rapids where she serves in a variety of ministries. Kim is an RCIA catechist, a lector at Mass, and she teaches classes on the Catechism and relationship with God. Kim is also pursuing a Master's in Theology at Loras College in Dubuque.

Mary Pedersen, the mother of six children, has been married for 28 years. DRE at St. Edward Parish in Waterloo, she holds a Masters of Ministry from Loras College, and is a frequent speaker throughout the diocese.
