Comments from past conferences.....

Each conference has had speakers that are relevant to what we need as Catholic women. Getting my Catholic "shot" to go back into my every-day regular life. Each year I look forward to seeing women that I've met here in the past. Great conference.

This is the first time I've attended and I'm so grateful to my friend for having invited me.

This was my fourth conference so far and they just keep getting better.

It was the best Martha and Mary I have ever attended. I enjoyed it so much.

My first time and it's been a wonderful time to share with friends. Will be back and will encourage others to come also.

An awesome Catholic experience. A great way to recharge the spiritual battery.

KELLY WAHLQUIST

She is the Assistant Director of the Evangelization and Development Office for Parish Evangelization for the Marians of the Immaculate Conception where she manages and advises for the Hearts Afire Parish-based Programs for the New Evangelization (www.AllHeartsAfire.org). Kelly is also the Program Manager for the Archbishop Harry J. Flynn Catechetical Institute in the Archdiocese of St. Paul & Minneapolis, editor of Catholicism 101 -a program by Jeff Cavins on the basics of Catholicism- and a contributing writer for CatholicMom.com, TheDivineMercy.org, and IntegratedCatholicLife.org, an eMagazine about integrating faith, family, and work. ### ROSARIO RODRIGUEZ is a dynamic speaker who has shared her uplifting message at universities and high schools across the US, Canada, Mexico and Europe. But she beat the odds to survive - and thrive - and now inspires others to see how God ultimately brings greater good from tragedy. Now Rosario is sharing her miraculous story and speaking about her journey of healing through the sacraments, finding her worth and dignity as a daughter of God, the power of prayer and the freedom of Forgiveness. In Los Angeles, Rosario has worked in Hollywood for Act One, an organization training Christian writers and producers to work in the mainstream entertainment industry.

She was also involved in reaching out and sharing the Catholic faith to those in the entertainment industry with The Hollywood Project. She was an organizer for 40 Days For Life, volunteered at Los Angeles Pregnancy Services and was on the core team for Catholic Underground LA.
